

SCOOP IS HAVING HIS USUAL VACATION

OGDEN TEAM IS PLAYING OUT OF LUCK

By defeating the Ogden team by the score of 7 to 2 yesterday afternoon on Lucas field, Salt Lake made its seventh straight victory. Although "Kitty" Knight pitched a good game, he could not overcome the lead of six runs that Salt Lake had garnered during Ervin Jensen's time on the mound. Jensen was in the box two and two-thirds innings and he allowed an even six hits which were sufficient for six runs. Knight pitched the remainder of the game and allowed but four hits and one run, a homer.

As a result of the poor showing he has made, Jensen was released. Roy Castleton took things easy on the Salt Lake mound, but nevertheless Ogdens found him for but six hits. In pitches he had the ability to tighten up.

Following the game yesterday, the Knights returned to Ogden and prepared to rest up in anticipation of the series of games with Butte at Glenwood this week. Although the players lost every game in Salt Lake, many of the Salt Lake fans who attended the games regularly feel that McCloskey was extremely lucky to take the series and that Ogden will have no difficulty in winning a few series of its own.

Before going north again, Ogden plays Butte, Helena, Missoula and Great Falls here.

GREAT FALLS BEATS MISSOULA

Missoula, Mont., July 6.—Errors and timely hits combined to give the Electric six runs in this afternoon's game, while Hildebrand hit with the home club just about as he wished.

Until the ninth inning Missoula had only one run. Then Hildebrand weakened and long, hard drives brought the locals three scores. For a moment it

BUTTE TAKES BOTH GAMES

Butte, Mont., July 6.—Butte took both games of today's double header with Helena, 5 to 3 and 3 to 0. The games were fast and well played by both the home and visiting teams, but Butte's more opportune hitting, together with good pitching and almost perfect support, won the two contests.

The batting of Fox and Oriet and three fast double plays featured the first game.
